WORK

Hello!

I am Janin which is an anagram for “ninja”. I am from the Philippines but I live in New York. If you had to place them on a thermometer, then one of them would be the boiling point while the other one would be the freezing point yet, despite how different and extreme they are, both halves shaped me into one whole eccentrically. I am twenty-four but I still dream as if I am twelve. I study design at Queens College. I used to study pre-medicine until I realized how much I love being “artsy fartsy” through different media. I would like to intern and, eventually work in a design agency after I graduate with my bachelor’s and gain more experience along the way. If I am not designing, then I am either eating like a pig, sleeping like a bear, or wondering around Manhattan like a tourist. I hope you like my work just as much as I love creating them.

Enjoy!
